

The 2013 Beulah Music Festival

Young People's Concert and Workshops,

Saturday 12 October

Singers' Workshop, 1.00pm in Beulah Reading Room.
Come and join with The Oratory Prep. School Junior Choir members to prepare for the concert. Directed by Hilary Cox.

Orchestral Workshop, 1.00pm in Tyrannell Music Room.
Come and make an orchestra! Wind, strings and percussion – all are welcome to prepare a piece for the concert. Directed by Ivor Cox.

Young People's Concert, 3.00pm in Beulah Reading Room.
As well as the workshop pieces, all young musicians, including beginners, who sing or play an instrument - solo or in a group - are invited to join in this concert.

Would you like to play or sing?

Please contact us and let us know what you would like to play. A pianist is available and other instrumentalists or singers could join with you.

Would you like to play or sing but are not confident or a bit shy?

Please bring your piece and any music to the appropriate workshop. You can decide to perform at the time as long as we know about you. Whether you do or not you will receive encouragement and friendly help.

Would you like to play or sing but think you are not good enough?

This concert is for young performers at all levels of attainment. If you can play or sing a piece of music, come along – you are welcome. This event is about performance!

For all enquiries contact Ivor Cox on 01591620205 or via web site at beulah.org.uk.
